Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair

STEPHEN C. FOSTER

Andante

I dream of Jeanie with the light brown hair, Borne like a vap-or, on the summer air; I
I long for Jeanie with the gay dawn smile, Radiant in gladness, warm with winning guile; I
I sigh for Jeanie, but her light form strayed, Far from the fond heart round her native glade; Her see her trip-ping where the bright streams play, Hap-py as the dais - ies that dance on her way, hear her mel - o - dies, like joys gone by, Sigh-ing'round my heart o'er the fond hopes that die:

smiles have vanished and her sweet songs flown, Flit-ting like the dreams that have cheer'd us and gone.

A musical score for two voices and piano. The vocal parts are in treble clef, and the piano part is in bass clef. The score consists of four staves. The first staff starts with a C7 chord, followed by a melody. The second staff starts with an F chord. The third staff starts with a Bb chord. The fourth staff starts with an F chord. The lyrics are as follows:

Man - y were the wild notes her mer - ry voice would pour
Sigh-ing like the night wind and sob-bing like the rain
Now the nod-ding wild flow'r's may with-er on the shore

Man - y were the blithe birds that
